Lesbian and gay rights in eastern Europe

I have got some response to the proposal of a letter by Tor from DNF-48, from Helmuth, Hans V. and Kurt. The letters are enclosed.

I have been talking with Peter about the best way to approach the Council of Europe and after that I suggest that we (i.e. ILGA by one of the secretaries general) send a letter to the director of human rights Peter Leuprecht following the outline in Tor's draft ammended as proposed. Parallel to that I will contact Ole Espersen to put some political pressure on the council as well.

So Tor, would you please change your letter slightly and send it to me for further action? (I think we shall omit the aids/hiv-issue for the time being).

The CSCE-meeting in Moscow

In Kurts letter you will find an update. It looks surprisingly possitive, but the problem is if any country will put forward the proposal. I am trying to contact the delegation in Moscow to try to convince them that they must be active in the process.

I enclose furthermore the resolution from the seminar arranged by RFSL and ARGO in Moscow.

Finally I enclose an orientation about a CSCE parallel activity in Oslo in November.

Kærlig hilsen

Steffen Jensen
